

A detailed topographic map of the Canosa di Puglia area in Italy. The map shows the coastline on the left, with towns like Trani, Canosa di Puglia, and Barletta. Various colored overlays are present: a large orange area in the center, a blue hatched area in the bottom left, and several smaller orange and green patches. The map includes contour lines, roads, and numerous place names. The text 'CANOSA DI PUGLIA' is visible in the bottom right corner.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the coastline, major towns, and various colored overlays indicating different land use or administrative zones. The map includes contour lines, roads, and a grid system. The towns of Vieste, Canosa di Puglia, and Trani are prominent. The map also shows the Gargano National Park and the Gargano Promontory. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the coastline, major towns, and various colored overlays indicating different land use or planning zones. The towns of Vieste, Canosa di Puglia, and Trani are prominent. The map includes contour lines, roads, and a grid system. The colored overlays include orange, green, and blue areas, which likely represent different types of land use or planning zones. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the coastline, major towns, and various colored overlays indicating different land use or planning zones. The towns of Vieste, Canosa di Puglia, and Trani are prominent. The map includes contour lines, roads, and a grid system. The colored overlays include orange, green, and blue areas, which likely represent different types of land use or planning zones. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Canosa di Puglia area. The map shows the town of Canosa di Puglia, the Canosa River, and surrounding municipalities including Trani, Andria, and Barletta. The map features contour lines, roads, and various colored overlays indicating specific zones or boundaries. The Canosa River is shown flowing through the area, and the town of Canosa di Puglia is located on the left side of the map. The map also shows the Canosa di Puglia area, which is highlighted in orange. The map includes labels for various locations, including Canosa di Puglia, Trani, Andria, Barletta, and Canosa di Puglia. The map also shows the Canosa River, which is highlighted in blue. The map includes contour lines, roads, and various colored overlays indicating specific zones or boundaries.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the coastline, major towns, and various geographical features. Key locations include Vieste, Canosa di Puglia, Barletta, and Trani. The map includes contour lines, roads, and water bodies. A large orange-shaded area is visible along the coast, possibly indicating a specific administrative or planning zone. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the municipalities of Vieste, Vieste Marina, and Vieste Centro. Key locations labeled include Trani, Andria, Canosa di Puglia, and Barletta. The map features contour lines, roads, and various colored overlays indicating different land use or administrative zones. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the coastline, major towns, and various colored overlays indicating different land use or planning zones. The towns of Vieste, Canosa di Puglia, and Barletta are prominent. The map includes contour lines, roads, and a network of rivers and streams. The colored overlays include orange, green, and blue areas, which likely represent different types of land use or planning zones. The map is oriented with North at the top.

A detailed topographic map of the Canosa di Puglia area in Italy. The map shows the town of Canosa di Puglia at the bottom, with Barletta to its north and Trani further north. The Grotte di Canosa are marked with a large orange area. The map includes contour lines, roads, and various colored overlays (orange, green, blue) indicating specific zones or boundaries. The map is oriented with North at the top.

A detailed topographic map of the Gargano Peninsula in Italy. The map shows the coastline of the Adriatic Sea to the north. Major towns are labeled, including Trani, Barletta, Canosa di Puglia, and San Severo. The map features contour lines indicating elevation. Several areas are highlighted with colored overlays: a large orange-shaded region in the central-western part of the peninsula, a green-shaded area near San Severo, and various smaller orange and green patches scattered across the landscape. A network of roads and railways is visible throughout the region.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Trani area in Italy. The map shows the city of Trani at the top, with the Grotto of San Gennaro (Grotta di San Gennaro) marked in the center. The Canosa di Puglia area is visible in the lower-left quadrant. The map includes contour lines, roads, and various geographical features. A large orange-shaded area is visible in the lower-left quadrant, and a blue-shaded area is in the upper-left quadrant.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Canosa di Puglia area in Italy. The map shows the town of Canosa di Puglia at the bottom, with a large orange-shaded area representing a specific region. Other towns visible include Trani to the north, Barletta to the east, and Andria to the south. The map includes contour lines, roads, and a river network. A legend in the bottom right corner identifies various symbols used on the map.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Puglia region in Italy. The map shows the coastline on the left, with several cities and towns marked, including Bari, Brindisi, and Canosa di Puglia. The terrain is depicted with contour lines, indicating hills and valleys. Major roads and railways are shown as black lines. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the Gargano region in Italy. The map shows the coastline of the Adriatic Sea to the north. Major towns and cities are depicted with black symbols and labels, including Vieste, Canosa di Puglia, Barletta, and Trani. The map features a network of roads, rivers, and streams, as well as contour lines indicating elevation. A large area in the center is shaded in orange, possibly representing a specific administrative or geographical region. The map is oriented with North at the top.

PIANO URBANISTICO GENERALE
 1 x 20/2001 – DRAG

P.38905
CITTÀ DI BARLETTA
16 GIU. 2016

P.38905
CITTÀ DI BARLETTA
16 GIU. 2016

PPTR - Regione Puglia Struttura ecosistemica-ambientale

This is a detailed topographic map of the area around the city of Valencia, Spain. The map shows the city's urban layout, including the city center, the port, and the surrounding hills. Key features include the Turia River, the city walls, and various landmarks. The map is oriented with North at the top.

This is a detailed topographic map of the area around the 'L' shaped structure. The map shows contour lines indicating elevation, with peaks reaching up to 1000 feet. A network of roads is visible, including a main road running horizontally across the middle and several smaller roads branching off. The 'L' shaped structure is highlighted in green and orange. Other features include a river or stream flowing through the area, various buildings and structures, and a large area of forest or vegetation. The map is oriented with North at the top.